CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution purchasers of our choice OLD MONONGAHELA WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to themselves exact copies of the Star Brands, long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys We can assure our friends and customers, that the unrivalled quality, everywhere acknowledged, of our choice OLD WHISKIES, cannot be equalled by these ingenious invaders of our rights.

Our new establishment, Gibsonton Mills, on the Monongahela River, gives us unequalled facili-ties for making Whiskey of the choicest kind, from malted and kiln-dried grain.

Purchasers of our Old Whiskies will please to notice, the words GIBSONTON MILLS and JOHN GIBson, Sons & Co., are inserted in the new Brands which we now adopt; and we deem it a duty to our customers and ourselves, to give notice, that we will prosecute and expose any person or persons who may hereafter copy or use our Brands.

FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE

COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, then any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small promium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the ombination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thou-sand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering procpects of future usefulness. The Directors hope 100 and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States.
All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

STILMORE, Nov. 15, 1856. Dear Sir:—I purchased three (3) of Manny's Rea-pers from you, and you wish my opinion in relation to them. They perform admirably, and for simpli-city, lightness of draft and execution, prefer them to any I have ever seen operate. I like them as much, if not more, for the cutting of Hay.

Yours, very truly.

JEREMIAH MORTON.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 4th, 1859. D. G. MEADE. - Dear Sir :- I used the Manny's Combined Resper and Mower, with Wood's Improvement, that you sent me last harvest, and I harvest, not only to my own entire satisfaction, but to the delight of my overseer. Indeed, I do not think I could have gotten through my harvest, without serious loss, had it not been for the Reaper.

MEADE .- Dear Sir :- I would have sent you the money for the Reaper sooner, but for the delightful employment of seeing it cut my Wheat and Grass, which latter I am now at.

Let me say to you, that it more than answers my expectation in its operations, and I think its durability will be fair, &c.

JAMES L. STRINGFELLOW. I am just finishing my harvest to-day, after severe struggle of a fortnight. The Reaper was of great service, and I should have purchased two, instead of one.

MISCELLANEOUS READING.

THE INDUSTRY OF WOMEN The last Edinburgh Review has an interesting paper on the labors and emoluments of women. The writer affirms that education is the surest means of placing her in the position nature intended her to occupy Out of six millions of women in England and Scotland, he shows that no less than half are industrial in their mode of lifemore than a third being self-supporting The matrimonial cases under recent laws have disclosed an amazing amount of female industry; almost every wife who sought protection proving that she had supported the household and acquired property. The reviewer does not hesitate to attribute difficulties in regard to the industrial independence of women to the jealousy of men. This jeal ousy, he says-

Shows itself with every step gained in show the feeling of the Farmers in regard to this REAPER and MOWER: willing to work for their bread; and we need not add, to condemn to perdition many more who have no choice left but between starvation and vice. The jealousy which keeps country women from the employment of engraving the brass works of a watch, and from pasting patterns of floss silk upon cards, for trade purposes, long kept the School of Design in London closed against female pu pils, and renders it still almost impossible for an English woman to qualify herself for treating the diseases of women and children. The same jealousy cost many lives in the am glad to say that I worked it through my whole late war, by delaying the reception of the nurses into the hospitals in the East, and by restricting their action when there. In the Staffordshire potteries women are largely without serious loss, had it not been for the Reaper. It worked admirably with two horses, and my overseer raked the entire harvest. I consider it a great labor-saving Machine, and would not be without it on any account. I can, we can vouch for the fact, that such is the jealousy of the men that they compel the women to paint without a rest for the hand, and the masters are obliged by their own I used one of the above Machines last harvest, workmen to sanction this absurd act of in
